

WakeMed Health & Hospitals

Pharmacy Residents

2018-2019

Alison Ivey, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy residents at WakeMed. Alison is from Lumberton, NC and received her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2014. She received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the South Carolina College of Pharmacy at the Medical University of South Carolina in 2018. Alison has many interest areas including critical care, internal medicine and infectious disease. She hopes to obtain a PGY2 specialty residency upon completion of her PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, and hopes to practice in a setting that will allow clinical and teaching opportunities in the future.

aivey@wakemed.org

Nicholas Orvin, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy Practice residents at WakeMed. Nick is from Moncks Corner, SC. He received his Bachelor of Science in Health and Wellness from The Citadel – The Military College of South Carolina in 2012 and his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the South Carolina College of Pharmacy at MUSC in 2018. His current practice interests include cardiology, critical care, and internal medicine. Upon completion of his PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency, Nick plans to pursue a PGY2 specialty residency. Following residency training, Dr. Orvin intends to practice at a medical center where he will hold both clinical and precepting responsibilities.

norvin@wakemed.org

Lindsay Carter, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Cardiology Pharmacy resident at WakeMed. Lindsay is from Apex, NC and received her Bachelor of Science in Biology from Western Carolina University in 2013. She obtained her Doctor of Pharmacy from the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2017 and completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at Vidant Medical Center in Greenville, NC. Her current cardiology practice interests include anticoagulation, atrial fibrillation, and heart failure. She plans to obtain board certification in pharmacotherapy during her residency year and upon completion of her PGY2 Cardiology Residency she plans to pursue a clinical position at an institution that also offers precepting opportunities.

lincarter@wakemed.org

Shaily Doshi, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Infectious Diseases pharmacy resident at WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Originally from Uganda, she came to the USA to pursue an education in pharmacy. She graduated from the University of Georgia College of Pharmacy in 2017 and completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Residency at Augusta University Medical Center in Augusta, GA. Her current interests include antimicrobial stewardship, pharmacokinetic monitoring, and internal medicine. Upon completion she plans to get a board certification in pharmacotherapy and pursue a clinical specialist position at an institution with precepting opportunities.

sdoshi@wakemed.org

Amanda Gorman, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Critical Care Pharmacy resident at WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Amanda is from Raleigh, NC. She received her Bachelor of Science in Biology from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2013 and her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of North Carolina Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2017. She completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Her current practice interests include critical care and infectious disease and she plans to earn board certification in pharmacotherapy during her residency year. Upon completion of her PGY2 Critical Care residency, Dr. Gorman plans to pursue a career in critical care at an institution where she will hold both clinical and teaching responsibilities.

agorman@wakemed.org