

WakeMed Health & Hospitals

Pharmacy Residents

2019-2020

Kelsey Dobbins, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy Practice residents at WakeMed. Kelsey is originally from Forest City, North Carolina. She completed two years of pharmacy prerequisites at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill before transitioning into pharmacy school. Kelsey obtained her Doctor of Pharmacy from UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2019. Her current practice interests include cardiology and critical care. Upon completion of her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice residency, Kelsey plans to pursue a PGY2 specialty residency and hopes to ultimately practice in a setting that allows clinical, precepting, and research opportunities.

kdobbins@wakemed.org

Derick Gabel, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy Practice residents at WakeMed. Derick is from Smithfield, VA and received a Bachelor of Science in General Sciences and a Master of Science in Clinical Research from Campbell University in 2015. He received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the Campbell University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences in 2019. Derick's current practice interests include cardiology and internal medicine. Upon completion of his PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency, Derick plans to pursue a PGY2 specialty residency and hopes to practice in a setting with both clinical and precepting responsibilities.

dgabel@wakemed.org

Amanie Khairullah, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy residents at WakeMed. Amanie is from Holly Springs, NC and received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy in 2019. Amanie has many interest areas including critical care and pediatrics. Upon completion of her PGY1 Pharmacy Residency, she hopes to obtain a PGY2 specialty residency and hopes to practice at a medical center holding both clinical and teaching responsibilities. akhairullah@wakemed.org

Amber Miller, PharmD, is one of the current PGY1 Pharmacy Practice residents at WakeMed. Amber is from Goldsboro, NC and she received both her Bachelors of Arts in Mathematics and her Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Her current practice interests include infectious disease and cardiology. Upon completion of her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency, Amber plans to pursue a PGY2 specialty residency and eventually practice at a medical center that offers opportunities for precepting or serving as an adjunct professor at a local pharmacy school. ambemiller@wakemed.org

Alison Ivey, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Infectious Diseases Pharmacy resident at WakeMed. Alison is from Lumberton, NC and received her Bachelor of Science in Chemistry from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2014. She received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the South Carolina College of Pharmacy at the Medical University of South Carolina in 2018. She completed her PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Alison has many interest areas including antimicrobial stewardship, HIV and internal medicine. She hopes to earn board certification in pharmacotherapy during her residency year and plans to practice in a setting that will allow clinical and teaching opportunities upon completion of her PGY2 Infectious Diseases residency. aivey@wakemed.org

Nicholas Orvin, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Cardiology Pharmacy resident at WakeMed Health & Hospitals. Nick is from Moncks Corner, SC. He received his Bachelor of Science in Health and Wellness from The Citadel – The Military College of South Carolina in 2012 and his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the South Carolina College of Pharmacy at MUSC in 2018. He completed his PGY1 Pharmacy Practice Residency at WakeMed. His current practice interests include heart failure, anticoagulation and cardiothoracic surgery. Nick plans to earn board certification in pharmacotherapy during his residency year. Following residency training, Dr. Orvin intends to pursue a career in cardiology at an institution where he will hold both clinical and precepting responsibilities.

norvin@wakemed.org

Patrick Prendergast, PharmD, is the current PGY2 Critical Care Resident at WakeMed. Patrick is from Rochester, MN and received his Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry from Concordia College in Moorhead, MN in 2014. He received his Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Minnesota - Twin Cities in 2018 and completed his PGY-1 residency at Hennepin County Medical Center in Minneapolis, MN. Patrick's interests include critical care, cardiology, infectious diseases, emergency medicine, and toxicology. When not practicing pharmacy, Patrick enjoys spending quality time with his family and friends, playing soccer, and enjoying the many breweries and restaurants in the area. Following residency Patrick hopes to find a position as a clinical specialist and act as preceptor to students and residents.

pprendergast@wakemed.org